DEADLY COLLISION.

A Panhandle Train Dashes Into the Valparaiso Milk Train.

Fifteen People Killed and Twenty Seriously Injured.

The Wreck Occurs in Sparsely Settled District and Assistance Was Long in Reaching the Scene.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—A head on collision between a milk train of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway and an eastbound passenger train on the Panhandle, or Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railway, this morning, killed twelve persons and injured as many more. The collision occurred in the "L" running from the main line just south of Calehoun to East Hammond, Ind., at the point of a curve, and in a sparsely settled locality.

The baggage car of the eastbound passenger train was ground into pieces and from this most of the killed and injured were taken. The remorseless of the scene of the wreck from immediate physical and surgical aid make the calamity a most distressing one, and it was more than an hour before the first of those rescued, maimed and bleeding, could be carried to houses in Colehour and South Chicago for treatment. Physicians were summoned from the latter place and engines were hastily prepared and mailed to the scene of the wreck. It is reported that Anson Temple, manager of the Shiller theater, Chicago, is among the dead. The collision occurred at about 10 o'clock. Twelve dead were taken out at 10:30 and more can be seen. It will take all day to get the bodies out. One man had his head out of the window pinioned by the debris and he is alone dead. A tangle between the engine and baggage car was latterly crushed to a jelly. Bodies can be seen pinioned in all shapes under the debris. The cause was carelessness on the part of some one.

THE WOUNDED.

Among the injured are:

Charles Ditchbe, Knox county, Ind., hurt about the head and internally.

Michael Ball, 1023 Jackson street, Louisville, Ky., internal injuries.

William Brewer, baggage master, Pan Handle train, left leg crushed and internal injuries, lives at Logansport, Ind.

Paul Seelner, newsboy, Gosport, Ind., right foot crushed.

James Eckenberry, Camden, Ohio, hurt about chest.

Joseph Ball, 527 Lampton street, Louisville, Ky., left leg crushed, hip dislocated and internal injuries.

William Richter, Westfocks, Ind., internal injuries.

William J. Turner, 739 West Lake street, Chicago, hurt about head.

Joseph Dillingslea, Clyde, Ohio, legs crushed and internal injuries.

THE DEAD.

Anson Temple, manager of the Schiller theater, Chicago, on his way to English lake shooting, head crushed to a mass.

Unknown man with Manager Temple, probably an actor.

William Bignay, traveling passenger agent of the Wisconsin Central railroad.

G. A. Haines, Vincennes, Ind.

William Shoniecker, New Albany, Ind.

William Richardson, 2117 State street, Chicago.

BEFORE HER DEATH.

Nellie Hart Fastens the Guilt of Murder on Her Brother.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Sept. 7.—Nellie Hart, the second victim of Tuesday's tragedy, died yesterday. Before her death, in the presence of the state's attorney and others, she made a statement fastening the double crime on her brother, John Hart. At his request, she said, she went to the grocery in the basement of the barn to help mill a board on. While there he choked her until she drank the Paris green, struck her over the head with a hammer and then shot her through the abdomen. Then he pursued the older sister, Mary, and shot her four time. At the second inquest Hart was held to the grand jury without bail. The crime has created excitement and a lynching is not improbable. Hart remains cool and collected and denies his guilt.

RESUMING WORK.

A Big Foundry at Beaumont, Ind., Starts Up.

BEAUMONT, Mich., Sept. 7.—The Pittsburg and Lake Angeline mine, which has been working two third time, has placed the miners and surface men on full time again.

HAMMOND, Ind., Sept. 7.—The East Chicago foundry, employing a large force of men, and which has been closed for some time, resumed work yesterday morning. The prospects for steady running are good.

TRIED TO SAVE HIS MONEY.

Returned to the Burning House to Get Head Not Death.

SUMNER, Mich., Sept. 7.—Charles Allen, one of the oldest residents of Gladwin county, re-lived a farm near and a half miles from Gladwin City, was burned to death yesterday. The house took fire and the old man entirely out, but returned for the purpose of saving some money, about $1,000 secreted in the house.

STOLEN VALISES.

Three of Them Taken by a Petty Thief.

A Crook Who Seems to Have a Mania for Stealing Grips—Police Have no Clue.

The Jim-thief is again at his work and last night made away with three good grips, but got nothing of value.

About 2 o'clock this morning John N. Preston, a G. A. R. man, of Lagrange, was en route home over the Grand Rapids and Indiana railway. He stepped out on the platform to get a breath of fresh air when a thief walked out the other end of the car with his leather grip. Mr. Preston called at police headquarters early this morning and reported his loss. His value consisted nothing of great value, but Mr. Preston would like to recover the bottom of his blue vest and his G. A. R. badge. The buttons were from his old army vest, which had seen some bloody services during the war and were prized as relics.

Last evening at 7 o'clock a man named Remington got off a Nickel Plate train to get a lunch and a few moments later when he returned to the car his valise was missing. The police were notified but Remington could not remain and left with the train.

Shortly after Remington's grip had been stolen a stranger entered the saloon of George Urfield, on Calhoun street, and after drinking a glass of beer, went into the back room with a valise which he opened. He took something out and then left. The police took charge of the property, and found the contents to be articles of clothing and a number of letters addressed to Martin L. Sample, of Peoria, Ill., a traveler for a portrait company, but nothing of great value.

UNDER TWO NAMES.

John Hogan, of Shelbyville, Ind., Draws Pensions.

The Mystery Surrounding His Identity Deepens—He is Found Dead in His Bed.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Sept. 7.—The John Hogan affair is still shrouded in mystery and more investigation adds only additional complications. Some two weeks ago Hogan was found dead in his bed in this city, and at the time there was strong suspicion of foul play, but the subsequent autopsy revealed the fact that he died of heart trouble. Twelve hundred dollars in currency was found wrapped around his arm, a certificate of deposit in the First National bank for $1,000 and a pension check for $210 on his person. Investigation revealed the fact that he has money and property in various cities. His identity, however, has not been fully established, as his stories while living were mystifying. He was an Irish Catholic and as such had frequent private consultations with Father Kaelin, the priest of this city. To the latter he said that his real name was not John Hogan, but gave a name which the priest at present refuses to divulge. It was said that he was drawing two pensions under the two names—one at the rate of $72 per month in the name of John Hogan for total blindness, the other for a less amount for another disability under the other name. His effects in the hands of an administrator and awaits proof of heirship.

Many persons are claiming to be heirs of the old man. Yesterday James Hogan, a member of the Chicago police force, came here, and after full investigation went away believing that he is a brother of the deceased. While James was relating his story Charles Hogan, of East St. Louis, came in and declared that he was a son of the deceased. He said he had four brothers and one sister, but his story does not agree with the old man's. Mrs. Mary Dicks, of Richmond, Ind., writes that she is a daughter, and Mrs. McAlishon, of St. Louis writes that John was her uncle. It is thought that Father Kaelin is in possession of information which, when told, will throw much light on the mystery. Hogan's pension certificates have not been found, and it is thought he had a place for such of his treasure and valuable papers.

THE POTTOWATOMIE.

The Pottowatomie of navigation on inland rivers is not altogether for the purpose of expending Government money. Alabama lost lumbermen are now shipping rest to St. Louis by way of the Tennessee River, rather than pay the exorbitant freight the railroads charge. This could not have been done before the United States Government deepened some shoal places that had always obstructed navigation. Railroads are discriminating against lumbermen in Alabama, as they are interested in keeping up the furnaces in Pennsylvania, where they get their own supplies.

Nervous people are always on hand something would happen, and old people are thankful when nothing does. They have learned that when disease lingers it usually means more trouble.

It the Chicago gang of police robbers are to indict for the Indiana crime, where are the detectives and their [illegible]

Turner's corpse is lying in state at office of the coroner. They have not yet refused to turn it over to the relatives for burial.

SCHEMING TO BEAT HIM

Roby Toughs Using the Telegraph to Gain Their Point.

Comment at Indianapolis on How the Courts Will Treat the Roby Receivership.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 7.—The summary manner in which Governor Matthews has dealt with the Columbian Athletic association at Roby was the theme of much comment here yesterday, and the interest in and outcome of the governor's coup would not be more marked if Roby had vanished under the very eaves of the state capitol. While the interest is intense, there is some doubt in legal circles whether the position of the governor can be maintained, especially the appointment of a receiver by the executive in the case of the Iron Hall the supreme court laid down the doctrine that insolvency was the only cause which would justify a court in taking possession of the property of a corporation and placing it in the hands of its own agent but the court in that case had only the fact of insolvency to deal with and there was no charge of violating a state law, though it was charged that the law of the order itself had been violated. The fact is that there is nothing analogous in the Roby case to be found in that decision, and as the governor's action present an entirely new question it attracts attention as well from its novelty as from the interests involved.

Ex-Judge Elliott, of the supreme court, has been the governor's adviser during the entire time, and he is accounted one of the best jurists in the state. As he allowed the step it is believed that it will be sustained, though no one questions the fact that the Columbian club is solvent and that the winding up of its affairs, if the courts usually sustain Judge Gillett's action must be done on entirely new grounds. In this connection it is commented upon with considerable emphasis that the governor steered clear of the attorney general in the matter, and went entirely outside of the state's highest legal officer for advice and counsel. It is believed that the strictures of the attorney general on the governor's course, and on Judge Gillett's letter some time ago caused the executive to believe that the attorney general was not very much in sympathy with him.

The governor expresses regret that the Brill-Lexigne fight was declared off before the spectators had assembled. "I had hoped," he said, "that the militia would be able to make arrests of the principals to the fight while actually engaged, and in that event some of the spectators would also have been arrested. Every man who attends such brutal exhibitions is equally guilty with the principals, and I would like to have some of them made examples of in this case." The governor confidently believes that the arrangement and principals in all the fights will be indicted and that the association will be declared illegal and judicially wiped out so far as Indiana is concerned.

EVANSVILLE, Sept. 7.—Interest centered in the court house, where the case of the state of Indiana against the Columbian Athletic club came up before Judge Gillette. The facts are too recent to need repeating, and the action of the governor in calling out the state militia and placing the property in the hands of a receiver is known to all. When the case was called yesterday both sides were represented by counsel. State's Attorney McMahon appearing for the state, and Judge Crumpacker, of Valparaiso, and J. B. Peterson, of Crown Point, for the defendants. The state sought by a quo warranto proceeding to annul the charter of the club. The defendants, through their attorneys, petitioned for a change of venue from Judge Gillette, and the petition was granted, but no judge was named to try the case. Judge Gillette suggested that he had been in correspondence with Judge Berkshire, of the supreme court, and that that jurist had expressed a willingness to try the case. The defendants' attorneys, however, strenuously objected to Judge Berkshire, and Judge Gillette signified a willingness to appoint some other republican judge as attorney to try the case, at the same time suggesting that each party should furnish a list of the names of those before whom they were willing to lay their case.

The temporary hearing of the injunction had been fixed by the original order for Friday, September 8, but it was thought that it would be impossible to get another judge to hear and determine the injunction matter at that time. In consequence, it was agreed that the matter should pass over until some future time to be fixed by the court, the injunction to remain in force and the receiver to hold possession of the club property until such further proceedings could be had.

States Attorney McMahon said he was satisfied with the proceedings so far as they had gone. His contention was that the law under which the Columbian Athletic association had obtained a charter did not permit prize fighting and that prize fighting had been carried on at Roby.

HEART DISEASE.

Retirement of Old Naval Officer From the Ranks.

PORT ORCHARD, Pa., Sept. 7.—Captain Byron Wilson, United States navy, who recently retired after forty years service, on a consideration of health, and early this morning of heart disease. He served under Admiral Porter on the Mississippi with distinction. Captain Wilson was married and had his home at Marion, Ohio, to which place the body will be sent this afternoon.

BACK FROM WAR.

The Fort Wayne Soldiers Return From Roby.

Sleepy, Dusty and Fatigued They Rested in the Nearest Restaurants for a Good, Square Meal.

At 4:30 o'clock last night the gallant Fort Wayne soldier boys returned from the Roughless battle of Roby, on their special train. They were a sleepy, dusty and fatigued set of fellows and somewhat made a charge upon the neighboring restaurants. Some of the boys managed to control their appetites until they got to the Kimball hotel. Food mollifies and soothe hearts were down to the train to welcome them and they were given a genuine ovation. Not a man and born in any way injured and the affair proved of the nature of a picnic. The soldiers slept on the floor in the club house. Each man had a blanket, sent up from Indianapolis. The state furnished hardtack, canned beef and coffee and the rations, such as bread and eggs, were purchased by the company. The Fort Wayne boys behaved themselves in a becoming manner and the statement that some of them raided neighboring orchards is false. The Fort Wayne company was the first to arrive and the last to leave, Major Miller being in command and it of the time. The soldiers amused themselves by swimming in the lake playing base ball and quoit games of slim down.

A sticker Chicago reporter telegraphed the Herald that at the time of the departure of the Fort Wayne Rifles, Zollinger battery and Warsaw Guards (the last to leave) more than one-quarter of the entire force was locked up in the guard house, a dressing room being used for that purpose. This charge is partially true but it was the Warsaw Guards and not the Fort Wayne boys who were in the guard house. It seems that hardtack and coffee grew very tiresome and the boys raided a peanut stand and made way with a bushel or more and several boxes of cigars.

The validity of the claims of the Columbian club will be tested in the courts at Crown Point tomorrow and it may be the militia will be called out again. Receiver Hayes is now in charge.

THE SCHOOL TAX.

Hon. D. P. Morgan Explains Why the Levy of 23 Cents Was Made.

Hon. D. P. Morgan, the treasurer of the Fort Wayne school board, in explanation of the increased tax levy for school purposes said that during the summer work had been done to the amount of $20,855 of this sum $9,355 has already been paid and the balance will be expended this week. Hence these payments will materially reduce the so called surplus of $30,000 and wipe it out entirely for expenses by January next. The board will then receive an additional $13,000, and this will pay the necessary expenses up until next June. So that, in fact, Mr. Morgan says, the surplus at any time will be very small. Next June the new tax levy will be made on a basis of 23 cents on the $100 valuation. At the time this levy was fixed the board was informed that the city's property valuation was only $10,000,000. If it is true that this valuation is $22,000,000, they will collect taxes on a basis of 20 cents only. The school board will hold a meeting this afternoon to discuss the question and will report their action to the city council at the next regular meeting of that body.

AN OHIO TOWN

Suffers Severely From Fire—Destructive Forest Fires Out West.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, Sept. 7.—The business portion of White Cottage was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss will amount to $20,000, with insurance for probable one-third.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 7.—The most destructive forest fire ever known in Washington is raging in the Dosewallips valley, west of Hood canal and east of Puget Sound, in the northwestern part of the state. Ranchers are fleeing down the valley to the beach. A half dozen ranchers left a few days ago to prospect for gold in the Olympic mountains and the are has cut them off. Fears of their wives and children are in distress.

CHINAMEN WANTED.

A Bounty Offered for them by British Guiana.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The Herald Panama correspondent cables: A dispatch has been received announcing an outbreak of yellow fever in Chalmette, Honduras. It is spreading to the interior. The legislature of British Guiana offers a bounty of $25 a head for Asiatic Chinamen from the United States. They are wanted to work on the cane plantations on a share plantation and the gold mines.

WILLIAM P. CHAPMAN.

The Decease of a Well-known Citizen.

The Summons Came to Him at His Interbrid Avenue Home, This Morning, after Death.

At 8 o'clock this morning occurred the death of William P. Chapman, at his residence No. 228 Fairfield avenue. The cause of his death was brought on by a fall. He was stricken down a week ago last Sunday after his return from a week's outing at Rock City and gradually grew worse until the decease of the lamented.

William Platt Chapman was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, not far from Cincinnati, on the 29th day of July, 1841. His father was Wm. S. Chapman and his mother was a daughter of the Hon. Elias Ross, of Cincinnati. Both have passed away. The subject of the sketch was reared in the public schools and later attended Norton academy, at East Walnut hill. His active life was interrupted, however, by the breaking out of the civil war and he immediately joined the service, enlisting as a private in the Seventy-ninth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, of which regiment ex-President Hayes was colonel. At the end of a year he was advanced to second lieutenant of the Second Ohio Heavy artillery and served until the end of the war, coming out a first lieutenant. His war record was a brilliant one. After peace had been declared he went to Baltimore, Md., and remained a year, going from thence to near Wilmington, Del., and engaged in farming. He next went back to Cincinnati with his brother, Dr. H. W. Chapman, and accepted a position with the Adams Express company. He came to Fort Wayne about twenty years ago, still in the employ of the express company. The deceased was married to Miss Clara Goodwin, of this city, in 1871. His wife and four children, Abbie, aged five and Louise, aged four, survive him.

The deceased was a man beloved by all who knew him. He was kind hearted and generous to a fault and was known for and wide. He was a member of the G. A. R. Besides his family he leaves three sisters, Mrs. James McCall, of Cincinnati; Mrs. William D. Clyne and Miss Anna, both of Cincinnati. His brother, Dr. H. W. Chapman, who is now in the city, is a physician at Whitehall ill.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. D. W. Moffat will officiate, the deceased having been a deacon in the First Presbyterian church. The remains will be shipped to Cincinnati at midnight.

BIG RACE.

At 10:30 o'clock last evening Margaret Reptile, aged sixteen, died at the school for the feeble minded after an illness of consumption. The young lady was one of the brightest and best pupils at the institution. She came from Grant county. The service will be held in the chapel at the school tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment at the school cemetery.

DEATH.

Mr. Rebecca Burnham, the mother of Calvin Burnham, salesman at the Indiana Furniture company, died Monday afternoon at her home in Madison, Ind., aged fifty-six years, five months and thirteen days. She was a Christian lady, loved and esteemed by all who knew her and had lived a useful life. Her funeral took place yesterday, the burial being in Pleasant Ridge cemetery, six miles north of Madison, and the services conducted by Rev. Calvin B. Gray. She was a life-long member of the M. E. church. Mr. and Mrs. Burnham, of this city, were both at Madison to attend the funeral, leaving here as soon as they received the telegram announcing that she was dying, but arriving a few hours too late to see their mother alive. They left, however, but lately returned from a visit of a few weeks to their parents' home. Mr. Burnham's father is still living to mourn the death of his companion.

A FRANTIC FATHER

Drives Ten Miles With His Dying Daughter.

And Calmly Which Has Occasioned the Family of Peter Rogers, Living Near Arcola.

Readers of THE SENTINEL will remember the account of a young man named Zemen who took ill with diphtheria while at work on the Tenth ward school in this city and died of the disease. Two weeks later the same disease was taken home to Arcola. All the younger members of the family were stricken with the dread disease, Lena alone escaped. The father became nearly crazed with grief and grew desperate. The result, his daughter, aged sixteen, who was almost at the point of death from the disease and neighbors in Arcola, who he asked for two tickets to this city. The agent at Arcola notified Health Officer Dr. J. E. Miller of the case. The doctor in company with Health Officer Rogers, hurried to the Grand Rapids and Indiana depot and met the train. The doctor in company with the father and daughter, who had been placed in a buggy, at the city limits, and started for the city at a rapid clip

A RUMOR SETTLED.

Some Said [illegible] Dead; Others Said He Was Not.

All Waited With Deep Interest and Breathless Anxiety.

Proved a Mighty and Indisputable Conqueror at Last.

A rumor has gained circulation that the well known Blizard Lyon, Esq. of 507 East 51st st., New York city, was utterly broken down in health but became unable to attend to his duties and was really in a condition beyond cure.

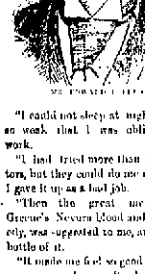
Over twenty doctors had examined and treated his case and all were forced to give up and acknowledge that his case was beyond their skill.

Then the rumor was made that there was a test case for the great and popular medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It took course a widely known fact that this wonderful remedy rarely if ever fails to cure, but could even its most vigorous curative powers restore health in this most serious case?

The Nervura was watched and eagerly watched its effects with deep interest and almost breathless anxiety.

We will give Mr. Lyon's own version of the affair

"For five years," he said, "I have been running down, gradually losing my health and strength, at last I got very bad and was troubled with pains in my back and around my heart.



MR. BLIZARD LYON.

"I could not sleep at night. I grew so weak that I was obliged to stop work.

"I had tried more than twenty doctors, but they could do me no good, so I gave it up as a bad job.

"Then the great medicine, Dr Greene's Nervura Blood and nerve remedy, was suggested to me, and I took a bottle of it.

"It made me feel so good that I tried one more, and now, after having taken four bottles, I am well and strong again, I sleep soundly every night and can work every day.

"I feel so strong that I can do any hard work without feeling any weariness or pain in my back or side.

"I am at a loss to find words to express my thankfulness and gratitude for this wonderful discovery, Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and nerve remedy. I have told my many friends about its wonderful curative powers, and I would not be without it if it cost ten dollars a bottle. I advise people to use it if they want to be cured."

You can get it at any drug store for $1. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and it surely cures. It should be used by all who are ailing, who are weak, tired, nervous, sleepless and run down. It is the best medicine possible to take. It was discovered by Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th street, New York, the most successful specialist in curing chronic and nervous diseases, who can be consulted free, personally or by letter

HAVE it said to be on the eve of an other revolution. The fall in silver has caused great depression.

UPON the courts may depend the responsibility of suppressing Roby. The judges should wipe the place out.

THE Colorado republican state committee has decided to act with the republican party organization in all matters save the silver question.

A RESOLUTION recommending the establishment of a government department of health was introduced in the Pan-American medical congress.

THE Iowa prohibition convention has nominated Hon. I. S. Collin for governor. When a name for the standard bearer of a party ordinarily means do not care to gather around a coffin, but the prohibitionists of Iowa will do as this year.

THE county teachers' institute being held in this city this week is one of the most successful ever held in our county. County Superintendent Young deserves much of the praise for its success. He is proving an efficient and active public official.

HON. LEVI MORTON, of Albion, has been elected president of the International Association of Sunday School Workers that has concluded its session in St. Louis. He is well known as an indefatigable laborer in Sunday school work, and as president of the Chautauqua assembly.

IT is probable that as soon as the house has disposed of its rules, the democratic members will begin their long promised attack on the federal election laws, and when the bill for this repeal has passed the house it will in all probability be pushed to an speedy passage as the republican numbers will permit.

THE home rule bill is bound to meet with stubborn opposition in the house of lords. The hereditary branch of parliament may be so blind to the force of popular sentiment in England as to delay the passage of the measure for an indefinite period, but it will prevail in the end, because it is on the side of right and justice, and when the final victory comes the triumph will be Gladstone's.

THE minority in the United States senate cannot permanently defeat the will of the people, but it can exasperate them by delaying the passage of a bill which they desire to see become a law immediately. That is what the so-called silver senators are doing. A poll of the senate shows a clear majority of at least two—it is probably more—for the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase act. Why waste any more time in procrastinating speeches?

THESE are the headlines of a column article in last Sunday's New York World, regarding the monetary situation. Good times at hand. Evidences that business confidence is practically restored—Money is easy and our stock of gold increases—Savings bank deposits hurrying to get their money at interest again—their $15,000,000 deficiency in the bank reserve made up in a month. Small imports of merchandise and large imports of gold—Improved financial condition shown by the cessation of fancy rates for exchange in New York.

BEGINNING in minerals, are being prospected, and the following changes are advocated. The procession to the grave should only consist of the preacher, the hearse and the pall bearers. This would save much expense and would give the family needed rest. Dead bodies should not be taken into churches, and funeral sermons should be delivered after the body had been consigned to the grave. The family and friends should take leave of the dead at the house and there should be no public parade or show. It will probably be a long time before the present customs of funerals will be changed and these proposed reformations instituted.

In a Charming Story.

In our issue today we publish a sketch of Kate Jordan, the author of the colonial story, "Kiss of Gold," the publication of which will be commenced in The Sentinel tomorrow. She is a charming writer and a charming girl, so I our readers cannot fail to be interested in her career. All should read the opening chapter of her story tomorrow. It is a brilliant story of New York and is the literary sensation of the day. It will be run on [illegible]

NEW LIFE.

GROSS & PFEIFFER, Druggist and Sole Agents, 84 Calhoun Street, Fort Wayne, Ind.

A GROUP AGAINST PARK of Newark, which lately vexed the mayor of a former metropolis of Delaware and New Jersey, now I vexed, has himself declared in favor of the publication in the newspapers of the names and residences of all prisoners. The post so says that the State Prison tracts, or any tract of the Republic, should petition Congress to provide for such publication, which should include, in addition to the name of the prisoner, the amount of annual pension and the nature of the disability or claim for which the pensioner is capital.

She Wanted a New One.

THE SITUATION.

Some of the Idle Factories are Preparing for Business.

Inquiries Concerning the Products of Our Manufacturing Establishments are Pouring in—Outlook Better.

The situation in manufacturing circles is assuming a more encouraging aspect. There is a confident feeling all along the line, and despondency and doubt have given way to cheerful expectancy. Our manufacturers report thousands of letters of enquiry concerning their products, and are thus led to believe that the retail dealers throughout the country are considering the question of replenishing their stock in trade. For the past week every mail has brought letters of enquiry to the Bass company concerning their engines, and the firm is now figuring upon several contracts, which, if secured, will furnish work for the machinists for several months. The Bass improved Corliss engine has gained an excellent reputation and before the money panic orders were far in advance of the workmen. At one time last spring the company had on its books twenty-two orders for these engines, not one part of which had at that time been built. Then came the "stringency" and orders stopped. The last of the engines under construction will be completed in a few weeks, but it is believed by that time the firm will have received several more contracts and work will continue with renewed vigor.

The Olds Wagon works, which have been closed for two weeks, will resume operations next Monday with a full force of workmen. There are 180 men employed in this establishment. The company is putting in machinery in its new head saw mill and in two or three weeks will have that department in running order, and will furnish employment to more men.

There is nothing doing at the Standard Wheel works at present, but the indications are favorable for a resumption of business before the month closes. These works shut down July 1, and with the exception of the tire department, have been idle ever since.

The Fort Wayne Furniture works, which have been running with a small force half time for two months, started on full time and with a full force this morning. The demand for furniture is increasing and the prospects for a heavy fall and winter trade are thought to be good.

The electric light works, which have been closed for three weeks for inventory and repairs to building and machinery, it is thought will resume work next week. Orders for electrical machinery are coming in satisfactorily now and the outlook for business is good

SHIFTS TODAY.

I. Greene, of the Pittsburg planing mills, is sick and off duty.

Blacksmith John Deegan, of the Pittsburg shops, is in Chicago.

Pittsburg Engineer Jacob Wormer has returned from the encampment.

Boilermaker Julian Zorbrugg of the Pittsburg, will go to the fair tomorrow.

John Hoover, a member of the city fire department, will take in the fair next week.

William Meyers, foreman of the Bass machine shop, has returned from the world's fair.

William Aix, car builder at the Pittsburg shops, is preparing to visit the world's fair.

J. A. Hinkin, of the Bass blacksmith shop, has reported for duty after a few days' illness.

George Keplinger, messenger in Master Mechanic Atterbury's office, has returned from the fair.

D. B. Kehler, manager of the Fort Wayne Furniture works, is in St. Louis hustling business for the firm

H. Sloat, machinist in the Pittsburg shops, has gone to Pleasant Lake to spend a week with his parents.

The Wabash shopmen turned out in large numbers at the funeral of the late Mrs. Alex. Henderson this afternoon.

In our telegraphic columns will be found an account of the wreck of the milk train on the west end of the Pittsburg road.

Charles Colcick and George Scott, of Shop Clerk Meegan's office, will leave tomorrow for the world's fair to be gone about ten days.

Hanna street car No. 57 broke down at the corner of Calhoun and Jefferson streets last night, blocking the track for a few minutes.

Car 55, on the Hanna street line, jumped the track in front of engine house No. 2, yesterday, and ran to the curbing. No one hurt.

Will O'Connell, the Grand Rapids and Indiana fireman, is enjoying a three weeks' vacation at Chicago visiting relatives and seeing the world's fair.

This morning D. N. Miller let the contract to build a $10,000 residence on East Berry street, near the city hall, to Adolph Gretholtman & Co. The building will be completed by January 1.

Theodore Kocher, of the Pittsburg shops, accompanied the Randall ball team to Decatur this afternoon. He will play short stop.

Boilermaker Martin Schram, of the Bass works, has returned home after a week's stay at the world's fair.

J. B. Meek is firing Wabash switch engine 267 in place of Freeman O'Neal, who has gone into the passenger service

G. W. Mudd, general foreman of the Wabash shops, went to Chicago last evening to spend a few days at the fair.

George Graham, of the Pittsburg paint shop, has as his guests his father, mother and two sisters of Crestline, Ohio.

M. E. Tuttle, Pittsburg train dispatcher, left for Chicago with his family at noon today for a two weeks' visit at the fair.

Twenty-four passenger trains passed over the Pittsburg road yesterday, and every one of them was loaded to its full capacity.

E. Martin, of the Pittsburg planing mills, will be laid up a few days. Yesterday a heavy timber fell on his right foot, bruising it severely.

Jacob Bacher, John Zaehringer and Robert Tredra, boilermakers, are repairing the machinery in the water station at the St. Mary's river.

Gus Fromuth has returned from Bedford, Va., where he was superintending the erection of a Bass improved Corliss engine. Mr. Fromuth says that business is no better at Bedford than in this place

Joseph Woods is in the city shaking hands with his many friends. Mr. Woods is a locomotive engineer and worked on the Nickel Plate road some years ago. He now resides at Livingston Montana.

Foreman George H. Judy, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, left on Sunday last evening for Pittsburg, where he will meet and accompany his wife home. Mrs. Judy has been visiting relatives in Altoona, Pa.

C. Kretsinger, of the Pittsburg car shop, was called to Kalamazoo yesterday by a telegram stating that his wife was quite sick. Mrs Kretsinger went to Kalamazoo several days ago to visit her parents. She was suffering with neuralgia when she left this city, but her condition was not considered serious.

There is no better engine made than the class N, when it comes to combining hauling capacity with speed. Last evening No. 261 recently built in the Fort Wayne shops, with Engineer Charley Eaton at the throttle, made the run from Fort Wayne to Crestline with twelve heavily loaded coaches in three hours, fifty minutes less than schedule time. The train was late in leaving this city. It might be well to state in this connection that Engineer Eaton is one of the finest and some of the credit for the good run is due him.

A BRAVE OHIO VETERAN.

Frank P. Chase of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Sandusky.

SANDUSKY, O., Sept. 6.—In view of the extraordinary interest in the grand army encampment at Indianapolis this week, the following letter from Frank P. Chase, of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Home here is particularly timely. He writes:

FRANK P. CHASE.

"I have taken six bottles of Paine's celery compound, and it has done me more good than all other medicines that I have used, and I have spent hundreds of dollars for them. When I commenced to use the compound I could not write my name, was in pain all the time, and would have to get up and walk the floor in agony, now I have scarcely any pain

Paine's celery compound permanently cures nervous debility, exhaustion, and kindred diseases, neuralgia, hysteria, headache, nervous dyspepsia, rheumatism and kindred troubles. Try it.

First Chicago Girl—Do you love your husband? Second Chicago Girl—Indeed I do. I love him more than any man I ever married.

Edith—How I hate that Mrs. Hifler! I should like to pull her hair out by the roots! Ethel—But, my goodness! her hair doesn't have any roots.

Observer—Can I go fishing? asked Bobby. "Yes, my son; take this quarter and run down to the grocer's and get a nice mackerel for breakfast.

Mrs. Youngface—Shall you expect me to bake our own bread? Mr. Youngface—Just as you prefer, dearest; but you needn't bother about baking mine.

Bernard—Why are you so sad, Mabel, darling? Mabel—I was just thinking, dearest, that this was the last evening we could be together until to-morrow!

Two women were talking of a third. "She's misplaced her affections," said the first, in a sympathetic tone. "Don't that like her?" said the other seriously. "I never knew her to have anything in the right place."

Aspiring Author—Of course you are fond of poetry, are you not, Miss Whipperley? Miss W.—My land sa, I believe; but let us talk of something serious. Tell me about the entries for the dog show.

Maude—George says I'm one girl in ten. How the dear boy must love me! Madge—Don't you know what he means? He proposed to nine other girls and you're the only one out of the ten that accepted him.

INDIANA'S HIGH MAN

He Lives in Ramsey in Harrison county, and Measures Six Pounds.

Ramsey, H. Harrison county, Ind., is willing today to challenge that one of another place on the face of the earth that boasts a citizen who is the tallest living man. Ramsey is on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railway, only four miles from Mauckport, the only town of 300 population, and has such a citizen, and he is born, if truly. Mr. Young is 8 years old now, and is six feet nine inches tall and weighed last week 306 pounds.

When he was born he weighed only eleven pounds, but when he was 3 years old he had grown to 75 and is likely by that his rapid growth ceased, yet he scored in entering Lou as a contestant for P. T. B. in nine years of 91,000 for the tallest baby that could be shown at Barnum's historic baby show in 1895. Master Young won the purse, as he puts it now, "hands down." At the age of 21 the combined weight of three average men was less than his weight, but he was only allowed to reach six feet, to that day he weighed 621 pounds. He has never weighed less than 525 pounds since he was 22 years old, and at his present rate of increase will send the scales Sayward at 1,000 pounds within a year.

It required a pound and a half of yarn to make each one of the robust children's socks, and no tailor can make him a suit of clothes out of less than forty yards of cloth. He has a chest measurement of ninety six inches and four inches more than that around his hips. His thighs measure sixty-six inches around, his legs twelve inches, his twenty-nine inches and his ankle eighteen inches. He can wear a twenty inch collar, but prefers a twenty-five inch one. Some Pumpkin men have bigger wives than Mr. Craig's wife is, and his lady only has "hands" enough to reach from an to wive than any 4-year-old boy for whose father Pumpkin Craig's vest wouldn't be too small for an overcoat.

A ROYAL SITTER

The Trouble a Photographer Once Had with the Emperor of Germany.

"The worst sitter I had was, I think, the present Emperor of Germany," said Fred. Fox, the photographer, to a representative of the Westminster Gazette. "He was a small boy of four or five and a regular young Turk. At the wedding I had noticed him marking hard all the time to pick out a precious bit on which was set a hilt of the dagger he wore with his Highland dress. He accomplished the feat successfully, the stone rolled on to the floor, and, strange to say, was never found again. When the little lad came to sit to me I found it quite impossible to keep him quiet for two minutes together. He was like quicksilver

"At last I hit upon the plan of giving him a corner of the canvas on which I was painting and let him daub that over. This kept him quiet for a while. One morning, however, he managed to smudge his face all over with the colors with which he was working, and he was in distress. 'Never mind,' I said to him, 'we can easily rub that off,' and I began to apply a little turpentine to his green cheeks. Unfortunately he had a little sore spot on his face, and when the turpentine got into it you can imagine that it was painful. The lad yelled like mad for a few minutes, but the thought that he need not appear on the scene with his face trifflicat with various oil colors soon quiet'd him."
